Important Update about COVID-19 (May 26, 2020)

Dear Patients,

Thank you all for your continued support and understanding as we adjust to our new normal. We are closely monitoring Government recommendations, as well as the changing health care standards around the region, to decide how and when we will start to re-open the clinic.

Patients can now self-refer for COVID-19 testing. If you feel you or someone in your family has COVID-19, please complete a Self Assessment Tool. If the result is positive, you may contact one of the following Waterloo Region Assessment Centers to schedule an appointment for testing:
